WEEKDAY MASSES AT ST CATHERINE'S: At 10am

Entrance Antiphon:

If you, O Lord should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?
 But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

Collect: May your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works. Through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Liturgy 10 October 2021; Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: A reading from the book of Wisdom 7: 7-11

Compared with wisdom, I held riches as nothing.

I prayed, and understanding was given me. I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSE:

Ps 89.12-17. R/ v.14

Fill us with your love that we may rejoice.

Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart.
 Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants. R.

In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days
 Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we know misfortune. R.

Show forth your work to your servants; let your glory shine on their children.
 Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. R.

Second Reading: A reading from the letter to the Hebrews 4: 12-13

The word of God can judge secret emotions and thoughts.

The word of God is something alive and active: it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely; it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

The Word of Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia! Alleluia!

How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 10: 17-30

Go and sell everything your own and follow me.

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said 'it is impossible. But not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

ACCLAMATION: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

When the Lord appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We entreat your majesty most humbly, O Lord, that, as you feed us with the nourishment which comes from the most holy Body and Blood of your Son, so you may make us sharers of his divine nature. Who lives and reigns for ever and ever Amen.

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH PATRIS CORDE Father's Heart (Ad te, beate Ioseph)

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our afflictions, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.

Sunday 17th October, 4.30pm at St Marie's Cathedral, the Bishop will open the diocesan phase of the Synod on Synodality. Our parishioners, particularly those who have been asked to be our parish representatives on the diocesan Synod Working Group, are warmly encouraged to attend.

OCTOBER MONTH OF THE ROSARY: The Rosary will be recited 15 minutes before Mass commences daily including weekends. Please do join if you can. Fr. Albert.

RED MISSION BOXES: Please bring your Red Mission Boxes to Church. The money will be sent to APF. The Association for the Propagation of Faith
